

Many people in our community depend on K-Love programming, including myself. It is the only station I listen to on a daily basis. I don't have to worry about content of songs or radio chatter that would be detrimental to me or anyone else listening to this particular programming.